

Relationship Map – E3 Leadership Team

Put your name and job title in the center of the circle. In the surrounding circles put the names and roles of the other members of your leadership team. Using the choices below, draw a connecting line that best describes the quality of the relationship between you and other individuals on your team.

The goal is to create a personal reflection tool that will help you get a better picture of the relational network that inspires, leads, and sustains your small school.

Reflection Questions

- Where are my relationships the strongest and most effective; and what do I need to do to maintain them?
- Which relationships are emerging and what do I need to know, or do, to build them?
- Where am I experiencing conflict and/or stress; what do I believe to be the causes, and what can be done?
- How are non-existent connections impacting my work?
- Which relationships do I want to attend to first?
